Casale Monferrato

For sale is a well-established, established business, a local landmark for over 25 years, with a well-established clientele. The business operates in the wholesale sector of agricultural and livestock products, offering a broad and specialized selection, from pets and farmyard animals to gardening, home care, and personal care products, with a strong presence in technical products for agriculture and livestock.

The store stands out for its comprehensive offering, years of experience, and an excellent reputation built over time. It represents an ideal opportunity for professionals in the sector or for those seeking to invest in a solid and profitable business. Both the sale of the business, offered at €75,000, and the purchase of the premises for €190,000, are available.

An excellent business opportunity with a long-standing reputation and ample room for development.
