Charming Baroque-style villa with distinctive turret

We offer for sale a charming villa of approximately 200 square meters, featuring elegant Baroque-style architecture and a distinctive turret, an architectural feature that gives the property a unique and timeless charm.

The property retains the authentic character of historic Piedmontese homes, with materials and construction details typical of local tradition, lending the rooms a refined atmosphere rich in personality.

The distinctive turret is undoubtedly one of the most fascinating features of the property, making the property particularly recognizable and evocative even from the outside.

The spacious interiors, spanning approximately 200 square meters, offer interesting possibilities for customization and enhancement, ideal for those seeking a home with strong historical and architectural character.

A property that combines elegance, history, and authenticity, perfect for those seeking a home that stands out for its charm and originality.
